St. Luke's Caregiver Conference is being sponsored by Solari Hospice Care

by Deena West | July 28, 2011 12:01 am

Solari Hospice Care is proud to sponsor the upcoming St. Luke's Caregiver Conference, slated for Aug. 6 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The event will take place at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Houston. Open to all family caregivers, the conference offers free skill-building workshops and features numerous speakers on various topics related to caregiving. To register, or for more information about the conference, visit www.stlukesmethodist.org/caregiver/.

At the event, Houston Solari Hospice Care will showcase its newest inpatient home at 9714 S. Gessner Road in Houston. The inpatient center is designed as a home-away-from-home for short-term acute care, with amenities aimed at making patients and their loved ones as comfortable as possible during their stay. Surrounded by a lush and tranquil landscape, the home offers spacious private rooms equipped with comfortable beds and sofa sleepers to ensure family members are at ease when visiting their loved one. Family gathering rooms emulate the warmth and familiarity of one's own family living room, with wireless Internet access, cozy furnishings and eye-pleasing décor.

St. Luke's Caregiver Conference goes hand-in-hand with the caregiving philosophy at Solari. The goal is to offer the most compassionate and comforting care, tailored to each patient's unique needs. By encouraging the discussion on end-of-life care and supporting the Caregiver Conference, Houston Solari Hospice Care is raising awareness on hospice and palliative care while providing resources and support for every caregiver.
